
COLLEGE CULTURE QUESTIONS

- ❒ Where is the college located?
  - ❒ What type/kind of college is it?
  - ❒ Is it a residential or commuter school or both?
- ❒ How safe is the surrounding area (city)?
- ❒ Who makes up the student population?
- ❒ What's the graduation rate?
- ❒ How much is college tuition - in state, out of state, per semester, over four years?
- ❒ What's the percentage of financial need provided?
- ❒ Does the city have an intelligent transportation system or is it limited?
- ❒ What kind of housing do they provide? What's the cost?
- ❒ What kind of majors do they offer?
- ❒ What resources are provided for transfer students?
- ❒ What kind of activities and organizations do they offer - academic, sports, Greek life, etc.?
- ❒ What do they accept in the area of academic credit?
- ❒ Do they give credit for CLEP (College-Level Exam Program) exams?
- ❒ Do they have a strong career services program?
- ❒ Do they have a strong student counseling services program?
- ❒ Who makes up the professor, staff and administrator population?
- ❒ Is there a mentoring program available for all students?
- ❒ How active is the college in the community and service learning endeavors?
- ❒ _____
- ❒ _____

Note: Ask yourself as many questions as you can; the intention is to begin thinking about the right college culture for you, one that would align with your preferences and help you thrive as a college student.