

COLLEGE REQUIRE & DESIRE QUESTIONS

- What are my strengths?
- What are my biggest challenges?
- What do I love to do - hobbies and/or work?
- Do I enjoy reading? If not, consider why not.
- Do I enjoy writing? If not, consider why not.
- Do I enjoy researching and studying? If not, consider why not.
- Would I like to attend school in or out of state?
- Would I like an urban, suburban or rural college experience?
- Would I like to attend a large or small school?
- Am I interested in attending a college where some of my friends are attending or would I like to attend a college where I don't know anyone, initially?
- If I attend college close to home, would I like to live at home or on campus?
- If I attend college away from home, would I like to live on or off campus?
- Would I like to have roommates? How many?
- Would I like to work while attending college or not?
- Would I like a car or am I cool using public transportation to get around?
- Would I like to attend a college with a strong sports program or not?
- Would I like to participate in Greek life, join a sorority or fraternity?
- Am I interested in participating in student government?
- Am I a morning, afternoon or evening person? When is my energy at its peak?
- Am I interested in joining any clubs or organizations? What are my interests?
- If I choose to live on campus, would I consider applying to be a Resident Assistant (RA)?
- Am I interested in leadership programs?
- Would I be interested in writing for the school newspaper or being part of their media staff?
- Would I prefer early morning, afternoon or evening classes?
- How often would I like to visit home?
- How often would I like my family to visit me at college?
- What kind of electronic devices would I like for college?
- _____
- _____

Note: Ask yourself as many questions as you can; the intention is to begin thinking about the kind of college experience that would challenge, excite, encourage and expand you personally and professionally.